Writ Petition (C) No.32526 of 2007-V

Judgment

Balakrishnan Nair, J.

The petitioner is the Principal of a Senior Secondary School. The 4th respondent is her father. Alleging that he is coming to the school and abusing her, using vulgar language in the presence of students and teachers, she has moved the Police. She has also got a case that the 4th respondent is coming to the Vanitha Hostel where she resides and abusing her in front of other inmates and the Warden. Even after filing Exts.P1 and P2 representations before the Police, they did not take any effective action. Hence this Writ Petition, seeking protection to function as the Principal of the School and also to reside peacefully in Aswathi Vanitha Hostel, Karunagappally.

2.The 4th respondent denies all the allegations against him. He is an affectionate father, who has brought up and educated her. He has a grievance against the petitioner that she is not getting married. Therefore, he tried to advise her. The other allegations of going to the school and hostel and abusing her etc. are emphatically denied by the 4th respondent. The said respondent also undertakes that he will not go to the petitioner's school or hostel, unless requested by her. This submission is recorded and the Writ Petition is accordingly closed.
